

2009 ILLINOIS ASTA FALL TEACHER ENRICHMENT WORKSHOP

Saturday, October 24, 2009

8:00 AM – 9:30 PM (registration at 7:30 AM)

York Community High School, Elmhurst, Illinois

Spend a Rewarding Day with Outstanding Colleagues and Presenters!

Robert Hasty – Conductor, Northwestern University, Evanston, Illinois

Charles Pickler – Violinist and Violist, Chicago Symphony Orchestra.

Sarah Smith – Director of the West Suburban Suzuki Strings, Inc.

Lloyd Palmiter – String Specialist with Quinlan & Fabish Music

Maude Powell Quartet – from the Elgin Youth Symphony Orchestra Chamber Music Institute.

Michael Pavlik – Presenting on Technology in Instrumental Music, for the ensemble, guitar or studio teacher. Practical, easy applications, usable whether you have a music lab or just one computer.

Including: Garage Band, Intonia, Smart Music, Alfred Music Theory, Video Assessments & more!

Carrie Provost – Carrie will lead a reading session of sure-fire favorites for string orchestra

Your colleagues – Sharing ideas through panel discussions and reading sessions.

And more...

Great Reasons to Attend Our Illinois ASTA Teacher Enrichment Workshop

- Receive feedback on your conducting or learn by watching others
- New ideas and inspiration for your orchestra program and/or studio
- Technology demonstrations for orchestra, guitar or studio use
- Advice on strings, instruments and new accessories for students and you
- Chamber music from an outstanding student quartet
- Visit with and coaching session with Charlie Pickler of the CSO
- New Music Reading Sessions
- “Tried and True” literature suggestions and reading sessions
- 1 Graduate Credit through VanderCook College of Music
- CPDU’s offered through VanderCook College of Music
- Opportunity to meet the Illinois ASTA Board and network with String Colleagues
- Raffle prizes, including new 2009 music sets direct from the publishers
- Lunch and Dinner included

